VA Honors Veterans with long-overdue Prisoners of War medals

FRESNO, Calif. – VA Central California Health Care System (VACCHCS) and Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) Clovis, Post #3225 will host a medal ceremony in honor of four Veteran residents of the Community Living Center at Fresno VA Medical Center on Monday, February 2, 2015 at 10:00 a.m.

This is a recognition long over-due and finally brought to fruition by the efforts of VFW Clovis Post #3225. They jumped to action when they learned that living Ex-POWs had never received their Prisoner of War medals after their time in service.

You are cordially invited to attend as we thank the Veterans and family and fellow EX-POWs for their service and selfless sacrifice. We can never say thank you enough!

WHAT: EX-POW Medal Ceremony

WHEN: Monday, February 2, 2015, 10:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m.

WHERE: Community Living Center (CLC)

VA Central California Health Care System
2615 E. Clinton, Ave., Fresno, CA 93703
